

Online Professional Development Grant:

F.A.S.T members can now apply for a $100.00 individual scholarship grant, to pay for a first one year subscription to the NSTA Learning Center for Professional Development. Interested FAST members can complete and submit a grant application by clicking on the following link. Online Professional Development Grant. Once your online application is approved; you will be emailed an access code. Click on the NTSA Learning Center link. Activate your subscription by entering your email and the promo code provided by FAST in the login box on the NSTA Professional Development site. After you've activated your subscription, you can use the PD Index Tool to begin searching for products. Once you have located a product you wish to view, click on the Add to Library button to get access to it. You can access your Library and all of the items you've selected.
